Middle weights Clash At Ardmore Tonight

Kid Wagner, of Wilkesbarre, Battles Italian Joe Gans, of Brooklyn, in Main Bout at Maryland Club.

GREEK BATTLES MARX

Local fistic fans will witness two clever claimants for the middle-weight crown in action tonight, when Kid Wagner, of Wilkesbarre, battles Italian Joe Gans over a fifteen round route in the main attraction at the Maryland Athletic and Social Club, at Ardmore, Maryland. Both fighters are going at top speed and each is anxious to hand a set back to the

This battle should be the best held at the Maryland Club this year, because of the different styles of fighting. Gans is a two-hand fighter, who packs a wallop in both mitts and one who is digging in at all times. Wagner, on the other hand, a boxer pure and simple, although he occesses a terrific punch. He is a tall, rangy, raw-boned battler, and appears to little reach on the New York

Because of the interest being shown by the fans in the semi-windup bouts the ability of the principals in the main attraction has almost been forgotten. Kid Greek, the local feather-weight title holder, is meeting Charley Marx, another local boy, in this battle, and a great deal of coin is expected to on the outcome. Although Marx has had the most ring experience, many are picking the title holder to land the verdict. Marx has been out of the game for some time, while the t see has been coming along at a fast clip until his re-cent setback by Battling Kelly, a Balti-more lightweight.

Three fast preliminary bouts are on the card. Billy Murphy, a local middle-weight, and Johnny Mace will meet at catch weights in four rounds to start things, while Young McCauley will battle Young Dyson will meet Paul Day in the Jockey Judy Features Races at Saratoga by Ride on Eddie Delling.

FAVORITES RUN BADLY

Marse Henry Handed Jolt in Flash Stakes When Prince of Como Lands First Place.

Saratoga, Aug. 11.-There's a dittle kid up here named Judy, who rides for John W. Schorr, John thinks very well of Judy. When the Schorr silks come home in front John pats the kid on the back, slips h'm a ten case note and gives him a little bull. Y'see, John ain't going to get this kid's head swelled. He just wants Judy to remember that he has a lot to learn and to learn it properly. The reason this is all told about Judy is that this kid did something this after-noon that no other classy rider would dare attempt. The midget was riding Eddie Delling in the fifth race. Eddie was a 2-to-1 favorite. There were twelve horses in this heat and about the worst actors that ever lined up against the off they shot, with Devil Fish leading and three others closely lapped on him, while Eddie Delling was a few lengths behind. The crowd saw the layout and began to swear softly, for it looked as if Delling had about one chance in a bil-lion. Well, they raced for about a six-teenth when Devil Fish pulled off the rail, leaving a space that seemed to be about two inches wide.

That was all that Kid Judy wanted
